8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

The Early Church (First Three hundred years). The first Christians were Jews. After the Death of the apostles, the Gentile Church strayed away from the laws and statutes that Jesus gave Israel. The True Mother Church was in Jerusalem not Rome. After Paul's death around AD67, the Gentile churches expanded rapidly. By 140 AD, the center of Christianity passed from Jerusalem to Christian communities in the cities of Antioch (Syria), Alexandria (Egypt) and ESPECIALLY Rome. (This is the time that Rome started to introduce its own brand of Christianity)

2 Thus saith the Lord, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

The Easter holiday which was declared by the Roman Catholic church is supposed to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus. However, the Word of God is contrary to the teachings that Jesus died on Good Friday and rose on Easter Sunday Morning. The Last Two Million Years. p.216 - Pagan Rites Absorbed:

"By a stroke of tactical genius the Church, while intolerant of pagan beliefs, was able to harness the powerful emotions generated by pagan worship. Often, churches were sited where temples had stood before, and many heathen festivals were added to the Christian calendar. Easter, for instance, a time of sacrifice and rebirth in the Christian year, takes its name from the Norse goddess Eostre, in whose honour rites were held every spring. She in turn was simply a Northern version of the Phoenician earth-mother Astarte, goddess of fertility."

"The Catholic Church organized the medieval inquisition in 1229 in an effort to exterminate dissident movements. The Spanish inquisition, organized in 1478, aimed to restore and preserve the unity of the church. But the methods employed were at times extreme and the inquisition with its cruelty constitutes a chapter of church history that Catholics now look back upon with regret. Many earnest Christians who refused to recant (renounce the Church) were put to death, had their property confiscated, or were punished in other ways. Although these severe methods may have succeeded in achieving a temporary repression of revolt, in the end they only increased resentment towards the church by its own adherence."
